JUL 20 1 26 PM '61

One juvenile who was arrested in a bus depot at Jackson, Mississippi, on July 7, 1961, and three juveniles who were arrested in a Jackson bus depot on July 9, 1961, were adjudged delinquent by the Hinds County Youth Court on July 19, 1961. Each was placed on probation for one year and released. All of them are residents of Jackson.

Two hundred forty-seven freedom riders have been arrested at Jackson since May 24, 1961. Ninety-nine have been released on bond, four have been released upon the payment of fines, one has been released without the filing of charges and four have been released on probation. One hundred thirty-nine remain in custody.

[redacted] a representative of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) at Jackson, contacted an Agent of the FBI on July 19, 1961, and stated that he had heard that a freedom rider fell from his bunk at Mississippi State Penitentiary, Parchman, Mississippi, and fractured his skull. [redacted] requested details and said, "we will want a complete investigation."

[redacted] was informed that no investigation would be conducted at this time since there has been no allegation that the prisoner was mistreated. He was further informed that the FBI could not furnish him any information concerning this matter but it was suggested that he contact the Sheriff of Hinds County, Mississippi.

Sheriff J. R. Gilfooy, Hinds County, Mississippi, advised on July 19, 1961, that Elmer Brown, who was previously reported to have suffered a skull fracture when he fell from his bunk at the Penitentiary on July 18, 1961, has been examined by two neurosurgeons at the University of Mississippi hospital.

JUL 21 1961

The Attorney General

The doctors found nothing wrong with the prisoner and could find no evidence of a skull fracture. Sheriff Gilfoy was returning Brown to the Penitentiary and he said that he would furnish [redacted] with information concerning this matter in the event that [redacted] contacts him.

It has previously been reported that [redacted] freedom riders from Los Angeles who were arrested at Jackson on July 15, 1961, have records of communist activity. The Jackson Police Department has received information concerning these individuals through the office of Senator James Eastland. The information is based upon the records of the House Committee on Un-American Activities. It has been indicated that the police will release this information to the press and that Senator Eastland's office is being requested to provide the police with information concerning other freedom riders.

James Luther Bevel and [redacted] of the Jackson Nonviolent Movement were convicted in Jackson Municipal Court on July 19, 1961, on additional charges of contributing to the delinquency of a minor. Bevel was convicted on three counts and [redacted] was convicted on two counts. Each was sentenced to serve six months in jail and was fined five hundred dollars on each count, all sentences to run consecutively. It is noted that on July 18, 1961, Bevel and [redacted] were convicted on one count of contributing to the delinquency of a minor and each was sentenced to serve six months in jail and was fined five hundred dollars. All charges were based upon allegations that Bevel and [redacted] caused minors to engage in sit-ins at Jackson.

[redacted] CORE, and [redacted] were arrested at Jackson on [redacted] as they were picketing in front of the Heidelberg Hotel where a meeting of southern governors was being held. They were charged with breach of the peace in that they failed to move on when instructed to do so by the police.

The Attorney General

It was reported in the local press that seven southern governors or their representatives were meeting in Jackson with Governor Ross Barnett of Mississippi. They were to discuss economic development of the South and current problems including "counteraction against outside forces straining at the South." It was said that the states of South Carolina, Arkansas, Alabama, Louisiana, Georgia, Florida and Mississippi were represented.

The five freedom riders who arrived in Chattanooga, Tennessee, on July 16, 1961, departed by Greyhound bus on July 19, 1961, and spent the night at Memphis, Tennessee. They plan to leave Memphis by Greyhound bus at 12:40 p.m., Central Standard Time (CST), July 20, 1961, en route to Little Rock, Arkansas, where they are scheduled to arrive at 5:10 p.m., CST, July 20, 1961.

Further developments will be promptly reported to the Department.

FREEDOM RIDERS
LITTLE ROCK, ARKANSAS
JULY 10 - 14, 1961

The Arkansas Gazette, Little Rock, Arkansas, daily newspaper of July 10, 1961, reported on page 1-A under the caption "'Rider' Team Due Tonight at Little Rock", that the St. Louis Committee of the Congress on Racial Equality (CORE) announced July 9, 1961, that five Freedom Riders would leave St. Louis on July 10, 1961, on a trip through the south to New Orleans, Louisiana, to test bus and rail terminal facilities. CHARLES R. ~~X~~OLDHAM, National Chairman of CORE, is quoted as stating that the group would stop at Little Rock and Shreveport, Louisiana, on its trip to New Orleans. The return trip would be by train through Mississippi, Tennessee and Illinois. "Facilities provided by both Trailways Bus Company and the Illinois Central Railroad will be tested", OLDHAM stated. O.S.A.

On July 10, 1961, Chief of Police ROBERT E. GLASSCOCK, Little Rock, Arkansas, Police Department, advised that five Freedom Riders arrived at the Midwest Bus Terminal, Markham and Louisiana Streets, Little Rock, Arkansas, via Trailways bus at approximately 7:47 p.m., that date. These individuals were met by a crowd of approximately 250 to 300 people, principally teen-agers. After alighting from the bus, four of these individuals entered the bus station waiting room marked "White Intrastate Waiting Room". Three individuals seated themselves and the fourth placed a telephone call. These individuals were photographed and interviewed by members of the news media for approximately ten minutes. After that time, Chief GLASSCOCK approached these individuals, identified himself and asked them if they were taking another bus out of Little Rock. They stated no, they were spending the night in Little Rock.

11/ The Arkansas Gazette of July 12, 1961, carried an article on page 1-A captioned "Rider who Avoided Jail Describes Little Rock Arrests as a Surprise", which carried the by-line of BILL LEWIS of the Gazette staff. This article reports the results of an interview with ANNIE LUMPKIN of St. Louis. LUMPKIN stated that the first Freedom Ride into Arkansas was arranged by CHARLES R. OLDHAM, a St. Louis attorney, National Chairman of CORE, and that the trip was financed by CORE. She stated each member of the group was given bus tickets and $20.00 for spending money. LUMPKIN stated they had telephoned the St. Louis Headquarters of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) and asked for volunteers to make the Freedom Ride. She stated she was attending a meeting of the NAACP and subsequently was the only one of the group who expressed a willingness to make the ride and actually showed up for it. She stated that the group met at OLDHAM'S home in St. Louis and had received the instructions for this ride.

LUMPKIN stated that she was following instructions from a CORE leader in St. Louis in acting as an observer during the St. Louis - Little Rock leg of the journey. She stated that the group anticipated no trouble at Little Rock, but that she expected to be arrested somewhere in Louisiana.

RE: FREEDOM RIDERS, LITTLE ROCK, ARKANSAS

On July 11, 1961, Chief GLASSCOCK advised that on that morning the four Freedom Riders appeared before Little Rock Municipal Judge QUINN GLOVER. At that time [redacted] Little Rock Attorneys, requested ARK that the case be postponed until the morning of July 12, 1961. Judge GLOVER granted this delay and the defendants were returned to jail in lieu of $500 bond. Attorney [redacted] told newsmen that the reason for postponing the cases was so that the defendants could test the constitutionality of Act 226 of 1959 under which these defendants were charged. He further stated that these cases will apparently test applications of the Act to interstate travelers.

On July 12, 1961, Chief GLASSCOCK advised that on the morning of July 12, 1961, four Freedom Riders again appeared before Municipal Judge GLOVER and were tried for violation of Arkansas State Statute 41-1432 (Act 226 of 1959). Chief GLASSCOCK, Captain [redacted] and Lieutenant [redacted] all members of the Little Rock, Arkansas, Police Department, testified to the facts surrounding the arrest of the Freedom Riders on the night of July 10, 1961. Lieutenant [redacted] further testified regarding his arrest of [redacted] the fifth Freedom Rider. [redacted] was the only defense witness. [redacted] testified that he was [redacted]

ARK [redacted] one of the original Freedom Riders. He testified that some of the testimony given by the Little Rock Police Officers was not accurate. He stated that the police officers were kind and courteous to the Freedom Riders except when the officers ushered them out of the bus station so fast - "As if we were common criminals". The Freedom Riders were defended by [redacted] Little Rock Attorney, and Little Rock Attorney [redacted] acted as Friend of the Court. Judge GLOVER found the four Freedom Riders guilty of violating Act 226 for threatening a breach of the peace. He imposed a fine of $500 and imprisonment for six months for each of the defendants. Judge GLOVER then suspended the sentences and released the Freedom Riders providing they "Leave the State of Arkansas and proceed to their respective homes". The four Freedom Riders tacitly agreed to this and they were released from custody.

RE: FREEDOM RIDERS, LITTLE ROCK, ARKANSAS
JULY 10 - 14, 1961

Chief GLASSCOCK made available a copy of Arkansas Statute 41-1432 (Act 226, Acts of 1959), which reads as follows:

Creating a disturbance in a public place of business or other public place.

Any person who shall enter a public place of business of any kind whatsoever, or upon the premises of such public place of business, or any other public place whatsoever, in the State of Arkansas, and while therein or thereon shall create a disturbance or a breach of the peace, in any way whatsoever, including, but not restricted to, loud and offensive talk, the making of threats or attempting to intimidate or any other conduct which causes a disturbance or breach of the peace or threatened breach of the peace, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars ($500) or imprisonment in jail for not more than six (6) months, or both such fine and imprisonment.

During the evening of July 12, 1961, Chief GLASSCOCK advised that the Freedom Riders' Attorney, [redacted] had telephoned Judge GLOVER stating that the Freedom Riders felt that the judge had not been clear in his instructions to leave the state and that the Freedom Riders desired to continue on into the State of Louisiana. Judge GLOVER had then revoked the suspension of the sentences he had imposed earlier that date and ordered that the Freedom Riders be returned to jail. At approximately 7 p.m., July 12, 1961, [redacted] surrendered the Freedom Riders to Chief GLASSCOCK at the Little Rock Police Department and they were placed in jail pending an appearance before Judge GLOVER on the morning of July 13, 1961.

On the morning of July 13, 1961, the Freedom Riders appeared before Municipal Judge GLOVER. At that time Reverend [redacted] was allowed to make a statement to the court. He stated that when Judge GLOVER suspended their sentences, with the provision that they return to their homes, he did not state the date and the time that they should return to their homes. He stated that the Freedom Riders did intend to return to their homes, but they desired to continue on their Freedom Ride and they would return to their homes upon its completion. He stated that the Freedom Riders did not want to mislead the court in this regard and had therefore requested this hearing. [redacted] further stated that he felt that the court had no jurisdiction outside of the State of Arkansas and could not instruct them to return to their homes.

[redacted] stated that the Freedom Riders would agree to not further test any facilities in the State of Arkansas and they would provide no publicity concerning their departure from the State of Arkansas.

Judge GLOVER then again suspended the sentences imposed and urged the Freedom Riders to return to their homes.

Chief GLASSCOCK stated that [redacted] had confidentially advised him that the news regarding the Freedom Riders' acceptance of Judge GLOVER'S terms of returning to their homes in lieu of a fine or jail sentence had been carried by the news services and that the CORE officials upon hearing this had telephoned Freedom Riders at Little Rock instructing them to remain here.

On the afternoon of July 13, 1961, [redacted] telephonically contacted Little Rock Office of the FBI. He identified himself as [redacted] for the CORE and a "So-called Freedom Rider". He stated that it was the policy of CORE to keep all law enforcement agencies advised as to the proposed movements of the group. He stated that the Freedom Riders would leave Little Rock via Trailways bus at 4 a.m., July 14, 1961, en route to Shreveport, Louisiana, arriving there at 11:30 a.m., the same date. He stated that there would be a change of buses at Texarkana, Arkansas. [redacted] stated that only four riders would make this trip as he had sent [redacted] back to St. Louis on the night of July 12, 1961.

On July 14, 1961, Chief GLASSCOCK advised that the four Freedom Riders had boarded a Trailways bus at approximately 4 a.m. that date and that they had left the City of Little Rock without further incident.

The Attorney General

Two hundred fifty-six freedom riders have been arrested at Jackson since May 24, 1961. One hundred eleven have been released on bond, four have been released upon the payment of fines, one has been released without the filing of charges, and four have been released on probation. One hundred thirty-six remain in custody.

The Department was previously advised that Elmer Brown allegedly was injured when he fell from his bunk at the Mississippi State Penitentiary on July 18, 1961. Sheriff J. Robert Gilfoyle was now advised that Brown was faking and had actually hit his head against the wall.

Brown talked to the press on July 20, 1961. He said that he had been misled by the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) and regretted his participation in the freedom ride. He later tried to hang himself in his cell but was discovered by a trusty. The Sheriff then contacted Brown's attorney who made arrangements on July 20, 1961, for Brown to be released on bond on July 21, 1961.

The Freedom Action Committee of Chicago (FACC) has recently been established at the Greater Bethesda Baptist Church, Chicago, Illinois. The FACC reportedly was organized to recruit and train freedom riders, to raise funds for freedom rides and to encourage nonviolent action against discrimination in Chicago. Participating organizations include CORE, the Urban League, the National Organization of Equal Workers and the American Friends Service Committee.

Information has now been received to the effect that Jackson, Mississippi, will be the destination of the freedom ride which is scheduled to leave Santa Monica, California, on July 28, 1961.

The CORE chapter in Baltimore, Maryland, allegedly plans to send eighteen freedom riders to the South in the near future.

The Attorney General

The freedom riders who were at Memphis, Tennessee, proceeded to Little Rock, Arkansas, by bus on July 20, 1961. They ate in the bus station at Little Rock without incident and made arrangements to return to their homes by airplane.

The Department will be advised promptly of further developments.

For the information of Miami, WFO and Chicago, allegation concerning Soviet-directed seminar in Havana during February, 1961, was based on press release of Mississippi Highway Patrol on 6/29/61 which reportedly was based on admissions of [redacted] to Mississippi authorities following her arrest at Jackson, Mississippi, 6/10/61 with a group of "freedom riders" as set out in New Orleans teletype 6/29/61, captioned "Freebus." This information was allegedly received by Mississippi Highway Patrol from an unidentified source in Florida, described as law enforcement officer. In addition, representative of Mississippi Highway Patrol told New Orleans Office that Mississippi Highway Patrol had received information from unidentified investigative agency in Florida to the effect that, during alleged Soviet-directed seminar, students were instructed on techniques to employ in sit-ins and "freedom rides."

Bureau has previously furnished Department with information indicating that [redacted] were among some 204 individuals who participated in ten-day tour of Cuba sponsored by FPCC beginning 12/23/60. Bureau has no information indicating that [redacted] or [redacted] made any subsequent trips to Cuba nor do we have any information regarding alleged Soviet-directed seminar in February, 1961. Department being so advised. Regarding proposed tour of Cuba by San Francisco students, San Francisco Office previously developed information concerning this matter which was furnished to the Department. This proposed tour was called off following State Department warning and no information was developed indicating that it was in any way inspired by Soviets.

New Orleans should immediately contact appropriate officials of Mississippi Highway Patrol in effort to determine original source of allegations concerning Soviet-directed seminar in Havana during February, 1961, and participation therein by [redacted] or other U. S. nationals. If possible, it should be specifically determined whether [redacted] made admissions along this line during interviews with Mississippi authorities and identities of sources in Florida who allegedly furnished information in this respect should be ascertained. Thereafter, appropriate leads should be set out by New Orleans to have such sources interviewed in order that this matter can be thoroughly resolved. For information of New Orleans, [redacted] described as a beatnik-type, has previously taken part in FPCC activities at Chicago and refused to be interviewed by Chicago Agents on 4/27/61, exhibiting a most hostile attitude on this occasion. A copy of this airtel is being furnished Chicago for its information concerning [redacted]

WFO should check appropriate passport records at State Department concerning [redacted] to determine if there is any record available concerning their travel to Cuba subsequent to the 12/23/60 FPCC tour and, in particular, to establish whether they were possibly in Cuba during February, 1961.

In view of Department's interest and in view of connection between this matter and case entitled "Freedom Ride 1961," this matter should receive expeditious handling and Bureau should be kept advised promptly of information developed.

DETAILS

AT ITHACA, NEW YORK

The following information was furnished by Confidential Informant AL T-1, on the dates indicated:

On May 31, 1961, the informant advised that he had ascertained that on May 27, 1961, [redacted] left Ithaca, by car, for New Orleans, Louisiana, to join the Freedom Riders. He identified [redacted] as:

[redacted] NY, NY
[redacted] NY, NY
PAUL S. GREEN
[redacted] NY, NY

According to this informant, [redacted] had previously volunteered their services to the Congress on Racial Equality (CORE). They attended a workshop in New Orleans on May 29, 1961, conducted by CORE on Non-Violent Techniques. [redacted] later returned to Ithaca to instruct other [redacted] volunteering as Freedom Riders. The other four were among the group of eight Freedom Riders who rode from New Orleans to Jackson, Mississippi by train, where they were arrested, tried in Municipal Court on [redacted] and fined $200 and 60 days suspended sentences. Informant advised that these four were still in jail in Jackson, after refusing to pay their fines but that because of [redacted] was returning to Ithaca later in the week and the other two in two to three weeks.

MASS. [redacted] NY, NY
Informant advised that on May 31, 1961, efforts were begun to recruit new Freedom Riders on the Cornell campus by an organization called the Cornell Committee Against Segregation. Under the direction of [redacted] Cornell undergraduate, all volunteers were being required, as prescribed by CORE, to be prepared to spend a 67 day minimum jail sentence in lieu of fine, and because of this many were refrained from volunteering. [redacted] Cornell graduate student, was reportedly assisting [redacted] in the above activity.

MASS.
Informant advised that he had also learned that an Ithaca group known as the Freedom Walk Committee, an established local anti-segregation group, had commenced a fund drive to raise money for fines and legal fees of arrested Freedom Riders.

Informant stated that he had also learned that on [redacted] were scheduled to leave Ithaca for New Orleans in two cars, to attend the CORE workshop there and then to serve as Freedom Riders and that other student groups were scheduled to travel to New Orleans on June 3 and 12, 1961. With respect to these groups, informant learned that if less than 25 were recruited in each group, travel would be made by automobile, with five men to a car to share expenses, but that if more than 25 were recruited for any one group, travel would be made by chartered bus. In conversation with [redacted] informant learned that approximately 30 volunteers had indicated a desire to serve as Freedom Riders.

Informant advised that commencing on [redacted] was conducting a [redacted] [redacted] for the purpose of recruiting riders and for obtaining monetary contributions for their future legal defense.

On June 1, 1961, informant advised that he had learned that one [redacted] was assisting [redacted] in running the [redacted] and that the [redacted] Committee Against Segregation in backing CORE, had announced two meetings to be held on June 2, 1961, for the purpose of recruiting potential Freedom Riders. This announcement by [redacted] Committee Against Segregation [redacted] indicated that [redacted] members [redacted] would moderate the discussions at these meetings. [redacted]

This informant advised on June 2, 1961 that a meeting was held at 2:30 P.M., that date at Willard Straight Hall, with Cornell student RICHARD G. BRIGGS acting as Chairman. There were eight females and approximately 37 males in attendance at the meeting. The first speaker, Associate Professor DAVID B. DAVIS, stated that the Freedom Rider movement was not against the law and that the only way to make the law clear is to test it time and time again. He claimed that the Freedom Riders present an excellent opportunity to test this law, and that their actions tend to show the entire world what happens when a person does something which is right and legal and is still punished for it. Professor DAVIS stated that to be a Freedom Rider a person must be full of determination, dedication, stamina and willingness to take a risk. He further stated that racial equality is no longer of any importance and that what is important at this time is whether American citizens can travel about without the danger of being mobbed or unjustly jailed.

BRIGGS then introduced PETER STERLING, who had just returned from jail in Jackson, Mississippi. STERLING stated that he felt as if he had been in the middle of the second Civil War, and he compared the Freedom Riders to the French resistance movement of the past. He stated that there was a considerable area of undercover work in the Freedom Rider movement but failed to elaborate on this point.

STERLING described New Orleans and Mississippi as essentially police states and he stated that the New Orleans Police Department has a K-9 Corps of police dogs, which are "trained to attack Freedom Riders and Negroes." He further stated that telephones of CORE members are tapped by the New Orleans Police Department, which cooperates with the White Citizens Council by turning over information to them on CORE and Freedom Rider activities as obtained through these telephone taps.

STERLING identified one of the Freedom Rider contacts in New Orleans as an individual named RUDY LOMBARD. He also stated there was a 20 year old girl in New Orleans who was responsible for the coordination of Freedom Rider activities in the city. He stated that there is no CORE office in New Orleans but when a group of persons is recruited to go South, the local CORE representative calls unidentified party in New Orleans and receives information on whom to contact and where the contact should be made upon arrival in that city. He indicated that Negro churches are used for workshops and for communication points.

STERLING stated that CORE is cooperating with the Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING in the South and he stated that Police in Jackson, Mississippi are very hesitant to act in the Freedom Rider movement. He cited as an example a conversation he had with the Chief of Police in Jackson upon his release from jail. He stated that the Chief told him to go on back to Cornell and that "the Niggers are happy and don't want trouble, which is what the Freedom Riders are causing." STERLING went on to say that the Chief also told him that the white Freedom Riders were segregated in the jail because it was feared that the Negro adults would assault the white college students. [REDACTED] N.Y.C., N.Y.

The meeting was then turned over to DONALD M. BLUESTONE, N.Y. a Cornell student, who offered the following information on the actual recruitment of Freedom Riders. He stated that the local CORE committee would take sign-ups at the end of the meeting on persons who definitely wanted to go South and who were willing to serve jail sentences. He stated that although CORE wanted people who could spend 67 days in jail they would also take persons who would be available for shorter lengths of time. He encouraged that recruits travel in groups and by trains as being more economical, as well as far safer. It was pointed out that no white girls had yet been Freedom Riders but that now females were being recruited. He pointed out that persons under 21 years of age, in volunteering, needed parental consent. BLUESTONE stated that those students living in New York City and wanting to become Freedom Riders, could contact the CORE office in New York City at 38 Park West, telephone Columbus 7-0035.

After this meeting informant learned that the following individuals had signed up to act as Freedom Riders:

On June 2, 1961, this informant made available an application blank which was distributed at the meeting for Freedom Rider recruits. Instructions on the application indicate that it is to be returned to [REDACTED] CORE, 38 Park Road, New York City, immediately.

The application blank states in part as follows: "I wish to apply for acceptance as a participant in CORE's Freedom Ride, to travel by a bus, and to test and challenge segregated facilities enroute. I understand that I shall be participating in a non-violent protest against racial discrimination, that arrests or personal injury to me might result, and that, by signing this application, I waive all rights to damages against CORE -- the Congress of Racial Equality, its directors, its officers, any other sponsoring organization and all others in any way connected with Freedom Ride." The application blank then contains a space for signature and for signature of parent if the applicant is under 21 years of age. The application blank further calls for the following information: name, telephone number, address, age, sex, marital status, race, college or occupation, what civil right groups do you belong to, past experience with non-violent action, and two references.

On June 5, 1961, this informant advised that he had learned from [redacted] that a Freedom Rider group would be leaving Ithaca for the South on Tuesday, June 6, 1961, and again on June 12, 1961. [redacted] stated that it is now planned to fly the participants to a point, as yet undisclosed, in the South. At this time he implied that no new volunteers had been enlisted. Due to the Cornell school year coming to a close, [redacted] advised that [redacted] had gone to some place in Massachusetts and would no longer be active in the affairs of CORE and that [redacted] was remaining in the North to [redacted]. [redacted] advised that [redacted] intended to go to New York City to help with the organizational end of the CORE movement during the Summer months. [redacted] N.Y.C. N.Y.

On June 8, 1961, Confidential Informant AL T-1 advised that he had just learned that the following Cornell students were leaving Ithaca, New York, on June 12, 1961, [redacted] for Nashville, Tennessee, in order to attend the CORE workshop there and then to join the Freedom Riders:

[redacted]

Informant advised that this trip would be made [redacted]

[redacted]

On June 14, 1961, informant advised that he had been unable to develop any additional information and that, to the best of his knowledge, with the Cornell school year at an end, no further activity on behalf of the Freedom Rider movement would take place on the Cornell campus.

In addition to the information received, as set forth above, from Confidential Informant AL T-1, the following information was obtained through items appearing in the "Ithaca Journal," a daily newspaper published in Ithaca, New York.

The June 3, 1961 issue of this paper contained an article emanating from the Cornell Committee Against Segregation reflecting that 17 students, including two women, had volunteered to join the Freedom Riders and that tentative plans had been made to send one group South this week and another group the following week. The article goes on to state that instructions would be obtained from CORE on where and when to send the students, whose names were not identified, in this article. This article further sets forth information reporting that the three Cornell students previously arrested in Jackson, HAYNIE, GREEN and GRIFFITH, reportedly were on a hunger strike.

The June 6, 1961 issue of this paper contains an article reflecting that the above mentioned Freedom Riders "decided last night to give up their hunger strike temporarily, after becoming convinced that the terms of their fast were aimed at the wrong Government agency." The article goes on to state that these students said they had decided that their original goal of fasting until the Attorney General's Office secured an injunction to end all segregation in transportation facilities in the South was not necessarily the most effective means of achieving their goals and that "legal clarification has revealed that working through the ICC (Interstate Commerce Commission) constitutes a more effective means of achieving our stated objectives than the Federal injunction originally demanded." This article further identifies DEL. GREENBLATT as a Cornell graduate student, who was preparing to leave Ithaca on this date, by bus, for Nashville as the first of a second Cornell contingent of seven students who were willing to spend 67 days in jail.

The June 13, 1961 issue of the "Ithaca Journal" contained the results of interviews with CHARLES HAYNIE and JOE GRIFFITH by a reporter for this paper. This article dealt with the Freedom

Rider movement, the arrest and subsequent jailing of these two students and their subsequent hunger strike. HAYNIE, in commenting on the reaction of their jailors to their hunger strike, is quoted as stating: "They knew we weren't crazy and they knew we weren't Communists. They just couldn't figure it out."

[REDACTED] The June 17, 1961 issue of this paper contained an item reflecting that two additional Cornell students, ELIZABETH S. HIRSCHFELD and ROBERT E. FILNER, were among a group of five Freedom Riders arrested on breach of peace charges at a bus station lunch counter in Jackson, Mississippi on June 16, 1961.

Unless otherwise noted, the following background and identifying information concerning the Cornell students and faculty members reported above as being associated with the Freedom Rider movement, was obtained from [REDACTED] Registrar's Office, Cornell University.

RE: [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] at New York City. He was admitted to Cornell University from Island Trees High School, Levittown, New York, in September, 1957 and is a student in the College of Arts and Sciences. At the time of registration, he listed his home address and that of his parent [REDACTED] New York.

Items appearing in the "Cornell Daily Sun," daily student newspaper published at Cornell University, Ithaca, New York, have identified BLUESTONE as a member of the Cornell Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy. (Issues of February 17, 1958, February 19, 1958 and March 17, 1958.)

An item appearing in the September 24, 1959 issue of this paper, reflected that the Action Party, a newly proposed political organization on the Cornell campus, was denied the right to use Willard Straight Hall facilities for signing up new members by the Student Government Executive Board. BLUESTONE was identified as Chairman of this Party and its platform is shown as including the abolition of compulsory ROTC, reduction in student cost of living, better student representation, and elimination of off-campus discrimination.

A letter to the editor of this paper, in its November 20, 1959 issue, signed by BLUESTONE, criticized the Loyalty Oath and Disclaimer Clause required by the National Defense Education Act and stated that interpretation of this act would vary with political pressures of the times and that freedom should be guaranteed by law and not depend on a politician's interpretation of it.

The March 3, 1961 issue of this paper listed DONALD BLUESTONE as one of the signers of a petition to the 87th Congress to eliminate the House Committee on UnAmerican Activities (HCUA) as a standing committee.

With reference to the Cornell Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy and the Action Party, mentioned above, [redacted] Cornell University, has advised that neither group has ever succeeded in becoming active on the Cornell campus. The Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy has circulated petitions from time to time, whereas the Action Party, for all practical purposes, has gone out of existence [redacted] stated that the purpose behind the Action Party was to affiliate all non-fraternity students into the one political pressure group in order to back for student officers those persons not connected with any Cornell fraternities or sororities.
